LOCAL LAZARUS.

James Jones, colored, was detected in the act of stealing a lot of lead pipe from the Spanish bark Aurelia yesterday, and was locked up in the main guardhouse.
Trial Justice John G. Mackey committed six Gooses Negroes to jail yesterday for trial at the next term of the Inferior Court on a charge of cow-stealing and killing.
The Rev. C. T. Quintard, Bishop of Tennessee, arrived in the city yesterday, and is the guest of Bishop Howe. It is understood that he will remain here for several days, and he will, doubtless preach in one of the Episcopal churches on Sunday next.

An avalanche of fruit is a very welcome visitation, in view of the approach of the holidays, and that is just what an enterprising firm, Messrs. Paul, Welch & Co. announce in today's News. Their cargoes of the luscious products of the West Indies just in are exceedingly tempting.
A little white boy was thrown by a mule in Broad street, near Church, on Sunday afternoon. The back part of his head struck the cobble stones, and was so seriously injured as to render him insensible. He was carried to the office of Dr. DeSaussure, who administered the proper remedies to restore consciousness, but without avail. The skull was not fractured, but the concussion was so severe that it is thought the child will die.

THE COURTS.

United States Commissioner.
Samuel Fraser, colored, of Beaufort, was bound over yesterday by Commissioner Porter for trial at the next term of the United States Court, on a charge of perjury.
United States Court—December 7.
Judge Judges Bond and Bryan.
In re William J. Screven. In bankruptcy. The judge approved the appointment of Bessie B. Jorrey as assignee.
The clerk was ordered to administer the juror's oath to the jury present.
The grand jury returned true bills as to Henry Moore and John Smith for conspiracy, and Allen Heath, Samuel Goodwin, James Miller and Joseph J. Hagen, for conspiracy and murder.
Ex parte H. H. Thompson, in re James A. Janett. Petition for sale of property, &c. Orphans' Court. The petition was referred to Registrar J. C. Carpenter to inquire and report to the court on the 27th December, 1872, and creditors are notified to appear and show cause why the debtor should not have his final discharge.
United States vs. Robert Moore. Conspiracy against Thomas Boudreau. The following jurors were sworn: J. Duncan Allen, Foreman; W. L. Dennis, J. A. Barnard, Lewis Bedner, colored, Ed. Marshall, colored, L. E. Walker, colored, Henry Wilson, colored, Virgil Johnson, Wash. Ashe, colored, G. F. Kirkland, Trezevant, S. T. S. Biddle. Several witnesses were examined on the part of the government; defense offered no witnesses. Mr. Corbin argued the case on the part of the government, and Mr. T. J. Pope for the prisoner. Judge Bond charged the jury, after which they retired, and in a short time returned a verdict of guilty as to the first and fourth counts, and not guilty as to the third and fifth counts of indictment.

William Hicks, colored, disorderly, one dollar.
A dog and a cow at large, one dollar.

THE FREUNDSTADT BUND.

The Freundschaftbund celebrated their anniversary last evening by a grand entertainment in their hall, at the corner of Meeting and George streets. The hall was crowded with the lady and gentlemen friends of the society. The entertainment was of the same general character as those which are given every Thursday evening alternately by the same society and the Bruderkorps Bund, that is, consisting of a concert, theatricals and a ball. It was agreeably varied, however, by the serving up of an elegant supper, over which many good thoughts and sayings sprang into existence. The dance was kept up far into the night.

MEDICAL SOCIETY OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

The ninety-second anniversary meeting of the Medical Society of South Carolina was held yesterday, at twelve o'clock. Dr. Manning Simons was re-elected secretary, and Dr. H. W. DeSaussure, Jr., of Robertson and F. L. Parker were elected trustees of the Roper Hospital. The following committees were appointed: Committee on Epidemics and Meteorology—Dr. J. F. M. Geddings and R. A. Kinloch. Committee on Accounts—Dr. T. S. Thompson, J. S. Balist, and George E. Treco. Committee on Books—Dr. W. H. Huger, W. C. Bavenel, and T. Orange Simons. In the evening, a convivial celebration of the anniversary was held at Tukey's.

Foreign Imports.—Mr. W. P. Fall received yesterday per Spanish bark Providencia, from Matanzas, a fine cargo of Spanish jacks, for breeding purposes, with a valuable list of fruits, wines and sundries.

HOLIDAY GOODS.

Now is the time for dealers in all classes of holiday goods to advertise their wares. The largest and best purchasers almost invariably make their selections early in the season, while stocks are full and varied, and before the rush of customers has set in. Those who are the first to make known to the public the attractions they propose to hold out are therefore sure to reap the richest harvest. We need hardly add that to do this thoroughly the columns of THE NEWS should be used. As an advertising medium it is conceded to possess unrivalled advantages.

THE MASONIC TEMPLE.

Dedication Ceremony To-Day.

The dedication ceremonies of the new Masonic Temple begin at one o'clock this afternoon. As already stated in THE NEWS the Grand Lodge will at noon open its session at the Odd Fellows' Hall, corner of King and Liberty streets. At half-past twelve o'clock the subordinate lodges of the city will meet in regalia at Holmes' Lyceum, when the members will proceed to form two parallel lines, extending from the Odd Fellows' Hall to the Temple, in which each lodge will take a position according to the date of its charter, with the oldest lodge in the first position. Between these lines the Grand Lodge will pass in procession under the charge of acting Grand Marshal Zimmerman Davis, assisted by Brothers J. Ogden and A. T. Smythe. The following is the programme of the dedication:

- I. Opening Anthem by the Choir—"Bow Down Before the Master of the Temple."
- II. Grand Master's Address of Welcome.
- III. Architect delivers implements to the Grand Master.
- IV. Uncovering of the Lodge, with music by the band.
- V. Consecration Prayer by the Grand Chaplain.
- VI. Dedicationary Services.
- VII. Anthem by the Choir—"Night Shades No Longer."
- VIII. Address by M. W. Henry Bulst, P. G. M.
- IX. Anthem by the Choir—"How Bright and Fair."
- X. Collection by the Grand Stewards for the relief of destitute Masons, their widows and orphans.
- XI. Benediction.

The following are the names of the presiding officers:
R. S. Bruns, of Charleston, grand master; General J. B. Kerne, of Camden, deputy grand master; James A. Hoyt, of Anderson, senior grand warden; James Birnie, of Greenville, junior grand warden; H. W. Schroeder, of Charleston, grand treasurer; R. B. Campbell, of Laurens, grand secretary; Rev. J. Porter, of Charleston, grand chaplain; Wm. Elliott, of Beaufort, J. H. Villeneuve, of Cheraw, senior grand deacons; W. L. Reid, of Cheraw, F. E. Hacker, of Charleston, junior grand deacons; B. A. Hunkeler, of Charleston, W. L. West, of Greenville, grand stewards; H. D. Corbet, of Meyersville, grand pursuivant; Colonel J. Zimmerman Davis, A. T. Smythe, J. Ogden, grand marshals of the day; W. A. Wilson, of Charleston, grand iller.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Chapmans at the Academy.

A very large audience assembled at the Academy last evening to welcome the favorite Chapmans, whose popularity in Charleston shows no signs of diminution. The troupe has been recruited by the addition of several new performers since it last appeared here, and the entertainment presents features of novel and varied interest. The performance began with an amusing farce called "Betsy Baker," in which the principal part was sustained by Miss Martha Wren, whose singing was full of life and spirit. This was followed by Mr. John Morris's really remarkable costume sketches, in which he changes his dress and character seven or eight times with the most ingenious and perplexing celerity. This performance is worth seeing, as an instance of the most successful prestidigitating conceivable. The ease and swiftness with which Mr. Morris makes his transformations would do honor to the famous Vicar of Bray. The next scene in the performance consisted of the "Musical Irish Sketch of Barney's Courtship," in which Miss Wren and Mr. Collins displayed a power of natural and realistic acting and singing which deserves very high praise. In its way, this simple little interlude was perfectly rendered, and was, perhaps, the most marked success of the evening.
The inevitable burlesque concluded the entertainment. Of this the most assiduous chronicler of small beer could, we suspect, find it in his heart to say little more than that it made the audience laugh. Misses Blanche and Ella Chapman carried off the parts allotted to them with their usual spirit and aplomb, and they were warmly received and loudly applauded. But the piece itself was simply a farce of the most unmitigated character. Mr. Portesque might moderate his acting as Terzina, and either reform or omit altogether some of his gags and witticisms to great advantage. A varied programme is announced for to-night.

"The Traded Street Mystery."

The entertainment of Mons. Valentine Veaux at the Hibernian Hall last evening was very enjoyable. It is true that those persons were disappointed who went with the expectation of seeing agile bricabrats and acrobatic hair brushes evolved out of the thin air and sent whirling about the hall; but no one present could say that he had not received a full and fair return in amusement for his twenty-five cents. Monsieur Veaux in the outset of his performance lectured on the science of mystery, showing, on general principles, how such performances as those of the Davenport Brothers and the startling manifestations in Traded street and at Surrency, are all subservient to natural laws instead of being wrought by supernatural agencies. A number of clever tricks of sleight of hand followed. He also made some wonderful exhibitions of physical strength. His feats of ventriloquism were admirable, and contributed greatly to the amusement of the audience. The last performance will be given this evening, when an entirely new programme is promised.

A PLEASANT OCCASION.

The Tullers Rewarded—Collation at the Masonic Temple—Presentation to the Architect by the Workmen—The Speeches, &c.
The building committee of the Masonic Temple gave an entertainment in the temple last evening to the workmen who have been employed by the Devereux Brothers in the construction of the building. A large number of white and colored laborers were present, as were also the Devereux Brothers and many prominent Masons. Several huge bowls of punch were provided, which evoked much good feeling and many good sayings. The colored workmen were especially delighted, and manifested their feelings in frequent outbursts of untutored eloquence, which contributed largely to the merriment of the occasion. The workmen had prepared a pleasant surprise for Mr. John H. Devereux in the purchase of an elegant gold pen and pencil case, which was presented to that gentleman by Mr. John Kerrigan in suitab and well-chosen remarks. Mr. Devereux made a short response, thanking the givers for the gift, and Mr. Kerrigan for the handsome manner in which it had been presented. At the conclusion of Mr. Devereux's remarks, three hearty cheers were given for him, and three more for Grand Master R. S. Bruns, who acknowledged the compliment in his characteristic style.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

RAISINS, ALMONDS, WINES, &c.—The attention of the trade in this and neighboring cities is invited to the very attractive sale on Friday next of imported fine groceries and wines, composing the cargo of the Spanish bark Providencia, just arrived. These goods are the very thing that is wanted for the holiday trade. See advertisement.

A CHARMING BOOK, for boys and girls, is "The Chatterbox," for 1872, bound in ornamental boards. It is profusely illustrated. The reading matter is of a pure and elevated tone, indeed there is much in it to instruct "children of a larger growth," but written in so pleasing and simple style as to make it highly interesting to the youthful mind. We would advise parents at once to go to Fogarty's Book Depository and secure a copy, as the advance from the English publishers are that the edition is exhausted, and no further orders can be supplied. dec10-tuhs

THE "SINGER."—The sales of the Singer Sewing Machine exceeded those of any other company in one year by fifty-two hundred. To form an idea of their business one must visit their salesroom, No. 186 King street, and see the stock they keep constantly on hand, and the shipments they make to different points in South Carolina. Mr. Bedell tells us they have one of the finest offices in the South in Savannah, Ga. See advertisement in this issue.

THE LADIES can find the very latest styles of fashion in the human hair department by visiting the Misses Ashtons, and if it is required they can also be suited in every article that has been introduced lately in imitation of hair. The wants of all have been studiously considered. dec10

THE ATTENTION of the public is invited to the auction sale this morning, at eleven o'clock, by J. A. Enslow & Co., auctioneers, of the Spanish bark Pordicho, lying at Southern wharf, sold by order of the Spanish consul for account of whom it may concern.

JEWELRY, SILVERWARE, &c.—Mr. Koldewey, the Jeweller, No. 302 King street, has a choice stock of the most attractive novelties in his line, well worthy the attention of those who are seeking holiday presents.

A VERY LARGE assortment of Jet Jewelry of every description can be found at Misses Ashtons. The English goods lately introduced, which are manufactured of India rubber, are marvellous of beauty and cheapness. dec10

MASONS, ATTENTION!—You can find all the standard works on Masonry at Holmes' Book House; also Diplomas and Demits. dec10-3*

UNPRODUCTIVE FRAUDS.—Imitations and counterfeits of an established, popular restorative, although mischievous in their direct effects, are indirectly beneficial in some respects. They teach the community to rate at its just value the preparation that has been simulated and pirated. The reputation and sale of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, for example, have been greatly enhanced by the attempts that have been made to supplant it. The dupes of imposture who from time to time have been induced by plausible falsehoods to try some worthless succedaneum for the standard tonic of America have invariably returned to it in an enthusiastic frame of mind, ready to champion its merits to the uttermost. The warmest panegyrist of its preventive and curative properties are those who have weighed the nostrums of envious adventurers in the balance and found them wanting. In a pecuniary point of view, all attempts to undermine the popularity of this medicine have proved advantageous to the proprietors, and except for the sake of protecting the public, the game of exposure would not be worth the candle. dec10-tuhs2w

THE "CIRCULATING LIBRARY" attached to Fogarty's Book Depository, is now open. Special arrangements will be made with Clubs in the country. dec9-tuhs4

JUVENILE BOOKS at FOGARTY'S BOOK DEPOSITORY.—Special attention has been given to this important branch of literature. Care has been taken to select good as well as beautiful books, suited to children of all ages. No department of their extensive stock of books for the holidays presents a more attractive appearance. They are mostly English editions, and beautifully illustrated. There is no more appropriate offering to youth than an instructive and entertaining book. dec5-tuhs3

"THE POCKET COMPANION" (a new and very neat article), containing a slate pencil, penholder, sponge, India rubber, memorandum book and penholder, all for 50 cents. "The Student's Companion," with ink stand, penholder and sponge, for 40 and 50 cents. "The Scholar's Companion," with sponge, ruler, pencil and chalk, for 25 cents.
